AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT OF 1990 Equal Opportunity for Individuals with Disability

The contractor and the r, (hereafter "owner") do hereby agree that the provisions of Title 11 of the Americans With Disabilities Act of 1990 (the "Act") (42 U.S.C. In providing any aid, benefit, or service on behalf of the owner pursuant to this contract, the contractor agrees that the performance shall be in strict compliance with the Act. In the event that the contractor, its agents, servants, employees, or subcontractors violate or are alleged to have violated the Act during the performance of this contract, the contractor shall defend the owner in any action or administrative proceeding commenced pursuant to this Act. The contractor shall indemnify, protect, and save harmless the owner, its agents, servants, and employees from and against any and all suits, claims, losses, demands, or damages, of whatever kind or nature arising out of or claimed to arise out of the alleged violation. The contractor shall, at its own expense, appear, defend, and pay any and all charges for legal services and any and all costs and other expenses arising from such action or administrative proceeding or incurred in connection therewith. The owner shall, as soon as practicable after a claim has been made against it, give written notice thereof to the contractor along with full and complete particulars of the claim, If any action or administrative proceeding is brought against the owner or any of its agents, servants, and employees, the owner shall expeditiously forward or have forwarded to the contractor every demand, complaint, notice, summons, pleading, or other process received by the owner or its representatives.

It is expressly agreed and understood that any approval by the owner of the services provided by the contractor pursuant to this contract will not relieve the contractor of the obligation to comply with the Act and to defend, indemnify, protect, and save harmless the owner pursuant to this paragraph.

It is further agreed and understood that the owner assumes no obligation to indemnify or save harmless the contractor, its agents, servants, employees and subcontractors for any claim which may arise out of their performance of this Agreement. Furthermore, the contractor expressly understands and agrees that the provisions of this indemnification clause shall in no way limit the contractor's obligations assumed in this Agreement, nor shall they be construed to relieve the contractor from any liability, nor preclude the owner from taking any other actions available to it under any other provisions of the Agreement or otherwise at law.

PREVAILING WAGE RATE

It is the public policy of the State of NJ that all workmen engaged in public works be paid prevailing wage, in order to safeguard their efficiency and general well-being and to protect them as well as their employers from the effects of serious and unfair competition resulting from wage levels detrimental to efficiency and well being. Therefore, a bidder in preparing its bid proposal shall take into consideration the requirements of Chapter 150, L. 1963 (NJSA 34:11-56.25 et seq.) as amended in Chapter 64 L. 1974 that all workmen shall be paid according to the prevailing rates. The Bidder shall ascertain from the state Commissioner of Labor and Industry the prevailing wage rates applicable for each craft or trade needed to perform the Work specified. The bidder is hereby notified that the successful bidder shall be required to pay wages to all workmen which shall be not less than the prevailing wage rate as established by the State Commissioner of Labor and Industry. If it is determined during the performance of the Contract that any workmen employed by the Contractor or any subcontractor employed by the prime Contractor has been paid a rate of wages less than the prevailing wage required to be paid, the Owner may terminate the Contractor's or the subcontractor's right to proceed with the Work, or such part of the Work as to which there has been failure to pay required wages and to prosecute the Work to completion. The Owner will reserve the right to allow prime contractor or subcontractor to correct retroactively and deficiencies found in the performance of and Work specified. Contractors or subcontractors performing any of the specified Works contained within the Contract Documents or Addenda thereto shall post the prevailing wage rates for each craft and classification involved as determined by the Commissioner of Labor and Industry, including the effective date of any changes thereof, in prominent and easily accessible places at the site of the Work or at such place or places as are used by them to pay workmen their wages. In accordance with NJAC 12:60-2.1 of the NJ Prevailing Wage Act, the Contractor shall submit a certified payroll record of each payroll period to the Owner within ten (10) days of the payment of wages.

When applicable, the Contractor shall pay the latest prevailing wage rates for projects in excess of $2,000.00 as determined by Commissioners of Labor and Industry of the State of New Jersey, for the locality in which the Work is to be performed, pursuant to Chapter 150, Laws of 1963 (NJSA 34:11-56, 25 et seq). A schedule of such is available from the Public Contracts Section, Office of Wage and Hour Compliance, CN 389, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0389, telephone number (609) 292-2259. The Contractor shall comply with all applicable statutes and regulations regarding the payment of wages and specifically Title 34, Chapter 11 of the Revised Statutes of New Jersey.

In the event it is found that a worker employed by the Contractor, under this contract, has been paid a rate of wages less than the prevailing rate required, the Owner may terminate the Contractor's right to proceed with the Work, or such part of the Work, as to which there has been a failure to pay required wages and to persecute the Work to completion. The Contractor and his sureties shall be liable to PACC for any excess costs occasioned thereby.
